- c. The Free Shares Reward offer is provided by Hang Seng Bank (the "Bank"). However, please note that Tracker Fund (stock code: 2800) (the "ETF") is managed by Hang Seng Investment Management Limited (which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Bank), the ETF's Trustee, Index Provider, one or more of the Participating Dealers and/or market makers currently also include members of the HSBC Group. Please refer to the prospectus documents of the ETF for details of the conflicts of interest in respect of the ETF that may arise (and the relevant product details including the risk disclosures).
- d. Also, please note the relevant risks related to trading of odd lots, including if the proceeds of the odd lots selling order are less than the related charges, customer must pay the difference and bear the loss that may arise from. The processing time of odd lots trading is related to the stock liquidity and the number of odd lot shares. Due to the manual processing of odd lot orders, there is no definite range of price difference between the odd lots and the board lots; such orders may take longer to process and are not guaranteed to be executed. Normally, the execution price of an odd lot order will have several spreads worse than that of a board lot order. In addition, the Bank may only get quote(s) and execute the odd lot trade(s) for customers through one of the few brokers as may be designated by the Bank from time to time, while the Bank will act in customers' best interests with relevant best execution factors taken into account in relation to customers' order(s).
- e. Regarding Eligible Customers who are entitled to the Free Shares, the Bank will place orders to buy the Free Shares in the secondary market (Hong Kong Stock Exchange) in the names of such Eligible Customers, and deposit the same into the New Securities Accounts of the such Eligible Customers on or before the last day of the 5th month subsequent to the account opening/upgrade month. The deposited Free Shares will be shown as a "buy trade" in the Securities Account monthly statement of the relevant month.
- f. The Eligible Customers do not have to pay for any securities transaction fee involved for this "buy trade" of the Free Shares, including brokerage fees, securities deposit charges, nominee services fee and any third party transaction charges such as transaction levy, stamp duty and trading fee, handling fee, securities management fee etc. (collectively "Securities Transaction Fees"). If Eligible Customers do not have other stock holdings except the Free Shares in the relevant New Securities Accounts, which with the Free Shares credited, during the period for 12 months since the deposit month, the custody fee for the same period will be waived.
- g. This promotion and the offer of Free Shares Reward do not represent, and should not be construed as, any investment advice from the Bank and the Bank has not taken into consideration the individual circumstances of any customers. Investment involves risks. There can be no guarantee, and no representation is made, on the performance of the Free Shares or as to whether losses would be incurred/profit would be made from the Free Shares. Customers must make their investment decisions in light of their own investment objectives, investment experience, financial situation or other needs etc., and (where necessary) should consult their own professional advisers before making any investment decisions.
- h. Please note that in respect of the Free Shares deposited into the Securities Accounts of the relevant Eligible Customers, customers are still subject to the fees and charges applicable to Securities Account, including custody fee (to be charged on a per account basis after expiry of the 12 months waiver mentioned in paragraph f above) in respect of their securities holding and the relevant Securities Transaction Fee, transfer fee and/or capital gain tax etc. when they sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of the Free Shares in the future. For the details of our Securities Account fees and charges, please refer to Hang Seng Bank website > Investments > Securities> Securities Services Charges.
- i. Completion time of the criteria set out in paragraph a above is subject to the Bank's record. The Bank will determine the eligibility of the customers to join the Promotion based on the record held by the Bank. In case of any disputes, the Bank's record shall be final and conclusive.

- j. Each Eligible Customer who is entitled to the Free Shares Reward must maintain valid Prestige Private Banking account, New Securities Account and “Local Securities – Client Consent” until the Free Shares are deposited into the New Securities Account, otherwise such Free Shares will be forfeited. If an Eligible Customer who is entitled to the Free Shares Reward has terminated the relevant Prestige Private Banking account or changed such account to a non-Prestige Private Banking or otherwise does not maintain a valid Prestige Private Banking account at the time the Free Shares are to be deposited into the New Securities Account, the Bank reserves the right to deduct from any accounts of the Eligible Customers maintained with the Bank an amount equivalent to the value of the Free Shares Reward (as determined by the Bank at its sole discretion with reference to the market value of the Free Shares at the relevant date/time) without prior notice.
- k. In case of any reason the Bank is unable to provide the Free Shares as reward under this offer, the Bank reserves the right to substitute the Free Shares with other reward(s) at any time without prior notice. The value or nature of the substitute reward(s) may differ from the Free Shares specified in these Terms and Conditions.

Life Insurance Plans

Please refer to the promotion leaflets / flyers and contracts for the important information such as detailed coverage, exact terms and conditions and exclusions of the relevant life insurance plans. Please refer to the product brochures for the relevant product risks. The above life insurance plans are underwritten by Hang Seng Insurance. Hang Seng Insurance is authorized and regulated by the Insurance Authority of the HKSAR. The Bank is an insurance agency authorized by Hang Seng Insurance for distribution of the above plans, and the above plans are products of Hang Seng Insurance but not the Bank. Upon application for these plans, insurance premium will be payable to Hang Seng Insurance, and Hang Seng Insurance will provide the Bank with commission and performance bonus as remuneration for distribution of these plans. The existing staff remuneration policy on sales offered by the Bank takes into account various aspects of the staff performance instead of focusing solely on the sales amount. In respect of an eligible dispute (as defined in the Terms of Reference for the Financial Dispute Resolution Centre in relation to the Financial Dispute Resolution Scheme) arising between the Bank and you out of the selling process or processing of the related insurance product transaction, the Bank will enter into a Financial Dispute Resolution Scheme process with you; however, any dispute over the contractual terms of the insurance products should be resolved between Hang Seng Insurance and you directly.

General Insurance Plans

The above general insurance plan ("this Plan") is underwritten by Chubb Insurance Hong Kong Limited ("Chubb") which is authorised and regulated in Hong Kong SAR by the Insurance Authority. Chubb reserves the right of final approval of the policy issuance. The Bank is registered as an insurance agency by the Insurance Authority (License No.: FA3168) and authorised by Chubb for distribution of this Plan. This Plan is a product of Chubb and not the Bank. Upon application to this Plan, insurance premium will be payable to Chubb, and Chubb will provide the Bank with commission and performance bonus as remuneration for distribution of this Plan. The existing staff remuneration policy on sales offered by the Bank takes into account various aspects of the staff performance instead of focusing solely on the sales amount.

In respect of an eligible dispute (as defined in the Terms of Reference for the Financial Dispute Resolution Centre in relation to the Financial Dispute Resolution Scheme) arising between the Bank and the customer out of the selling process or processing of the related transaction, the Bank is required to enter into a Financial Dispute Resolution Scheme process with the customer; however, any dispute over the contractual terms of the insurance product, underwriting, claims and policy service should be resolved directly between Chubb and the customer.

The above information is intended to be a general summary for reference only. Please refer to the policy wording for exact terms, conditions, details of the exclusions and relevant product risks.

Risk Disclosure

Risk Disclosure of Investment Funds

- Investors should note that all investments involve risks (including the possibility of loss of the capital invested), prices or value of investment fund units may go up as well as down and past performance information presented is not indicative of future performance. Investors should read carefully and understand the relevant offering documents of the investment funds (including the fund details and full text of the risk factors stated therein) and the Notice to Customers for Fund Investing before making any investment decision. Investment funds are investment products and some may involve derivatives. Investors should carefully consider their own circumstances whether an investment is suitable for them in view of their own investment objectives, investment experience, preferred investment tenor, financial situation, risk tolerance abilities, tax implications and other needs, etc., and should understand the nature, terms and risks of the investment products. Investors should obtain independent professional advice if they have concerns about their investment.

The risks for funds which are index funds include but not limited to:

- Tracking error risk: There can be no assurance that the performance of the relevant fund will be identical to the performance of the relevant index. Factors such as the fees and expenses borne by the relevant fund, the time differences associated with portfolio re-balancing, the prices at which the constituent stocks of the relevant index are acquired or disposed by the relevant fund, the market condition at the relevant time of acquisition or disposal, the index-tracking strategies or financial derivative instruments used will affect the performance of such fund relative to the relevant index.
- Passive investment risk: Fund manager does not have any discretion to select stocks individually or to take defensive positions in declining markets or changes in the composition of the index. Hence, any fall in the relevant index will result in corresponding fall in the value of the relevant fund. The composition of the relevant index may change and stocks currently comprising the relevant index may subsequently be delisted. Other stocks may also be added subsequently to become constituent stocks of the relevant index.
- Concentration risk: The relevant fund may be concentrated in a single or particular sector(s) or single country / region. The performance of the relevant fund could depend substantially on the performance of the relevant single or particular sector(s) / market(s) and the relevant fund is likely to be more volatile than a broad-based fund as it is more susceptible to adverse conditions in the relevant single or particular sector(s) / market (s). In seeking to reflect the weightings of constituent stocks of the relevant index, investments of the relevant fund may be concentrated in a single constituent stock or several constituent stocks. The performance of the relevant index and the fund may be significantly affected by the price fluctuation of one or several of the constituent stocks of the relevant index.

The risks for funds which are bond funds, including but not limited to the credit / default risks of the issuers of the bonds in which the bond funds invest, interest rate risk and liquidity risk etc.

Risk Disclosure of Equity Linked Investments ("ELIs")

- Equity Linked Investments ("ELIs") involve derivatives. You should not only base on this material alone to make any investment decisions. The investment decision is yours and you should not invest in ELIs unless the intermediary who sells it to you has explained to you that the product is suitable for you having regard to your financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives.
- ELIs are considered as a complex product and you should exercise caution in relation to ELIs. The market value of the ELIs may fluctuate and you may sustain a total loss of their investment. You should therefore ensure that you read and understand the nature of the ELIs and the relevant offering documents of the ELIs (including the full text of the risk factors therein) and, where necessary, seek independent professional advice, before making any investment decisions.

- Liquidity risk - ELIs are designed to be held to its maturity. You may not be able to sell your investment in the ELIs before maturity. If you try to sell the ELIs before maturity, the amount you receive may be substantially less than the investment amount.
- Credit risk of the ELI issuer - ELIs constitute general unsecured and unsubordinated contractual obligations of the issuer. When you buy ELIs, you will be relying on the creditworthiness of the ELI issuer and of no other person. You have no rights under the terms and conditions of ELIs against any issuer of any linked stock. If the relevant ELI issuer becomes insolvent or default on its obligations under the ELIs, in the worst case scenario, you could lose substantial part or all of the capital invested. ELIs may be terminated early by the Issuer.
- Some ELIs are partially capital protected at maturity provided that you hold the ELIs until maturity and the ELIs are not otherwise early terminated.
- Investing in ELIs is not the same as investing in the linked reference asset(s) directly.
- Not covered by the Investor Compensation Fund - ELIs are not traded on any markets operated by Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited or any other stock exchanges. There may not be an active or liquid secondary market.
- The above is not an exhaustive list of risk factors. For details, please refer to the offering documents.

Risk Disclosure of Structured Notes

- Structured notes involve derivatives. You should not only base on this material alone to make any investment decisions. The investment decision is yours and you should not invest in the product unless the intermediary who sells it to you has explained to you that the product is suitable for you having regard to your financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives and you fully understand and are willing to assume the risks associated with it.
- Structured notes are considered as a complex product and you should exercise caution in relation to Structured note. The market value of the structured notes may fluctuate and investors may sustain a total loss of their investment. You should therefore ensure that you read and understand the nature of structured notes and the relevant offering documents of the structured notes (including the full text of the risk factors therein) and, where necessary, seek independent professional advice, before making any investment decisions.
- Credit risk of the Issuer - structured notes constitute general unsecured and unsubordinated contractual obligations of the Issuer. When you buy structured notes, you will be relying on the creditworthiness of the Issuer and of no other person. You have no rights under the terms and conditions of the structured notes against any issuer of any linked underlying(s). If the Issuer becomes insolvent or default on its obligations under the product, in the worst case scenario, you could lose substantial part or all of the capital invested. The structured notes may be terminated early by the issuer.
- Some structured notes are 100% capital protected at maturity provided that it is not otherwise early terminated by the Issuer
- Investing in structured notes are not the same as investing in the linked reference asset(s) directly.
- The structured notes are not normal time deposits, and they are not protected by the Deposit Protection Scheme in Hong Kong.
- Not covered by the Investor Compensation Fund – structured notes are not traded on any markets operated by Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited or any other stock exchanges. There may not be an active or liquid secondary market.
- The above is not an exhaustive list of risk factors. For details, please refer to the offering documents.

Risk Disclosure of Bond and Certificate of Deposit Product

- Bonds and Certificates of Deposit (CDs) are investment products. The investment decision is yours but you should not invest in a bond / CD unless the intermediary who sells it to you has explained to you that the bond / CD is suitable to you having regard to your financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives. Your intermediary is under a duty to assure that you understand the nature and risks of this product, and that you have sufficient net worth to be able to assume the risks and bear the potential losses of trading in this product.

- Bonds are not deposits and should not be treated as substitute for conventional time deposits.
- Certificate of Deposit is not a protected deposit and is not protected by the Deposit Protection Scheme in Hong Kong.
- Investors who purchase bonds / CDs are exposed to the credit risk of the issuer and guarantor (if any) of the bonds / CDs. There is no assurance of protection against a default by the issuer / guarantor in respect of the repayment obligations. In the worst case scenario, any failure by the issuer and the guarantor (if any) to perform their respective obligations under the bonds / CDs when due may result in a total loss of all of your investment.
- Renminbi (RMB) is not a freely convertible currency. As such, investors trading bonds and / or CDs denominated in RMB are subject to additional risks (such as currency risk).
- The above is not an exhaustive list of risk factors. Please refer to the section on “Risk Factors” in the relevant “Bond / Certificate of Deposit Trading Services” Factsheet to understand other risk factors applicable to bonds and CDs.
- The information displayed does not constitute nor is it intended to be construed as any professional advice, offer, solicitation or recommendation to deal in Bonds / CDs. Investors should be aware that all investments involve risks (including the possibility of loss of the capital invested). The prices of Bonds and CDs may go up as well as down and past performance is not indicative of future performance. Investors should not only base on this information alone to make investment decisions, and should carefully consider whether an investment is suitable for them in view of their own investment objectives, investment experience, investment tenor, financial situation, risk tolerance abilities, tax implications and other needs, etc., and should read the relevant product offering documents and terms and conditions (including the full text of the risk factors therein) in detail before making any investment decisions. Investors should obtain independent professional advice if they have concerns about their investment.
- No guarantee, representation, warranty or undertaking, express or implied, is made as to the fairness, accuracy, timeliness, completeness or correctness of any general financial and market information, news services and market analysis, projections and / or opinions (“Market Information”) provided above and the basis upon which any such Market Information have been made, and no liability or responsibility is accepted by the Bank in relation to the use of or reliance on any such Market Information whatsoever provided in the webinar.
- Investors must make their own assessment of the relevance, accuracy and adequacy of the information provided and make such independent research / investigations as they may consider necessary or appropriate for the purpose of such assessment. The Bank does not make any representation or recommendation or assessment as to whether or not any of the investment(s) mentioned are suitable or applicable to any persons and thus shall not be held responsible in this regard.

Risk Disclosure of “MaxiInterest” Investment Deposit

- “MaxiInterest” Investment Deposit (“MXI”) is a structured product involving derivatives. You should not only base on this material alone to make any investment decisions. The investment decision is yours and you should not invest in MXI unless the intermediary who sells it to you has explained to you that MXI is suitable for you having regard to your financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives and you fully understand and are willing to assume the risks associated with it. You should therefore ensure that you read and understand the nature of the MXI and the relevant offering documents of the MXI (including the full text of the risk factors therein), where necessary, seek independent professional advice, before making any investment decisions
- MXI is embedded with FX options. Option transactions involve risks, especially when selling an option. Although the premium received from selling an option is fixed, you may sustain a loss well in excess of such premium amount, and the loss could be substantial.

- You should note that MXI is not normal time deposit and thus should not be considered as normal time deposit or its alternative. It is not a protected deposit and is not protected by the Deposit Protection Scheme in Hong Kong.
- Earnings on MXI are limited to the nominal interest payable and it is only payable upon maturity. As the principal and the earning will be paid in the Deposit Currency or the Linked Currency, whichever has depreciated against the other, investors will have to bear the potential losses due to currency depreciation, which may be substantial. If MXI is withdrawn before maturity, investors will also have to bear the costs involved. Such losses and costs may reduce the earnings and the principal amount of MXI.
- You will be relying on the Bank's (as the issuer) creditworthiness. MXI is not secured by any collateral. If the Bank becomes insolvent or default on its obligations under MXI, in the worst case scenario, you could suffer a total loss of your investment amount.
- MXI is not listed on any stock exchange and is not covered by the Investor Compensation Fund.

Risk Disclosure of Currency-Linked Capital Protected Investment Deposit

- Currency-Linked Capital Protected Investment Deposit ("CPI") is a structured product involving derivatives. You should not only base on this material alone to make any investment decisions. The investment decision is yours and you should not invest in the CPI unless the intermediary who sells it to you has explained to you that the product is suitable for you having regard to your financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives and you fully understand and are willing to assume the risks associated with it. You should therefore ensure that you read and understand the nature of the CPI and the relevant offering documents of the CPI (including the full text of the risk factors therein) and, where necessary, seek independent professional advice, before making any investment decisions.
- CPI is embedded with FX options. Option transactions involve risks, even when buying an option. The option's value might become worthless if the market moves against your expectation.
- You should note that CPI is not a normal time deposit and thus should not be considered as normal time deposit or its alternative. It is not a protected deposit and is not protected by the Deposit Protection Scheme in Hong Kong.
- You should understand that the Principal of the CPI is protected only when it is held to maturity and you will be relying on the Bank's (as the issuer) creditworthiness. CPI is not secured by any collateral. If the Bank becomes insolvent or default on its obligations under the CPI, in the worst case scenario, you could suffer a total loss of your investment amount.
- CPI is not listed on any stock exchange and is not covered by the Investor Compensation Fund.
- Investing in CPI is not the same as buying the Underlying Currency Pair directly.
- Renminbi (RMB) is subject to foreign exchange control by the PRC government and thus investors investing in the CPI involving RMB are subject to the currency risk of RMB.
- Certain Terms and Conditions (including some of the key dates) of CPI can be adjusted by the Bank. The CPI may be terminated early by the Bank.

Risk Disclosure of Securities Investment

Investors should note that investment involves risks. The prices of securities fluctuate, sometimes dramatically. The price of a security may move up or down, and may become valueless. It is as likely that losses will be incurred rather than profit made as a result of buying and selling securities.

Investors should note that investing in different Renminbi-denominated securities and products involves different risks (including but are not limited to currency risk, exchange rate risk, credit risk of issuer / counterparty, interest rate risk, liquidity risk (where appropriate)). The key risks of investing in securities via the Stock Connect Northbound Trading include:

- Once the respective quota is used up, trading will be affected or will be suspended.
- Stock Connect Northbound Trading will only operate on days when both markets are open for trading. Investors should take note of the days the Stock Connect Northbound Trading is open for business and decide according to their own risk tolerance whether or not to take on the risk of price fluctuations in securities during the time when Stock Connect Northbound Trading is not trading.

- When a security is recalled from the scope of eligible securities for trading via Stock Connect Northbound Trading, that security can only be sold but NOT bought.
- Investors will be exposed to currency risk if conversion of the local currency into RMB is required.

Foreign securities carry additional risks not generally associated with securities in the domestic market. The value or income (if any) of foreign securities may be more volatile and could be adversely affected by changes in many factors. Client assets received or held by the licensed or registered person outside Hong Kong are subject to the applicable laws and regulations of the relevant overseas jurisdiction which may be different from the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap.571) and the rules made thereunder. Consequently, such client assets may not enjoy the same protection as that conferred on client assets received or held in Hong Kong.

Investors should note that ETF is different from a typical unit trust and many factors will affect its performance. In general, the market price per ETF unit may be significantly higher or lower than its net asset value per unit due to market demand and supply, liquidity, and scale of trading spread in the secondary market and will fluctuate during the trading day. ETF is different from stocks, investors should read the offering documents of the relevant ETF and understand the features and risks of ETF etc.

Risk Disclosure for TraHK

- The Tracker Fund of Hong Kong ("TraHK") is an exchange-traded fund designed to provide investment results that closely correspond to the performance of the Hang Seng Index ("Index") but its return may deviate from that of the Index.
- Investment involves risk, including risks of concentration of investments in shares in constituent companies of the Index, performance of the Index, economic, political and social developments, risks relating to investment in Hong Kong-listed stocks, and dual counter risks. Investors may lose part or all of their investments.
- Due to fees and expenses of TraHK, liquidity of the market and tracking strategy adopted by the Manager, TraHK's return may deviate from that of the Index.
- The trading price of TraHK may differ from the underlying net asset value ("NAV") per unit.
- TraHK may not be suitable for all investors. Investors should not invest based on this website only. Investors should read TraHK's prospectus including all risk factors, consider the product features, their own investment objectives, risk tolerance level and other factors, and seek independent financial and professional advice as appropriate prior to making any investment.
- The performance of TraHK, the NAV per unit and the performance by the manager and the trustee of their respective obligations are not guaranteed by the HKSAR Government. The HKSAR Government has given no guarantee or assurance that the investment objective of TraHK will be met.

RMB Currency Risk

Renminbi ("RMB") is subject to exchange rate risk. Fluctuation in the exchange rate of RMB may result in losses in the event that the customer subsequently converts RMB into another currency (including Hong Kong Dollars). Exchange controls imposed by the relevant authorities may also adversely affect the applicable exchange rate. RMB is currently not freely convertible and conversion of RMB may be subject to certain policy, regulatory requirements and / or restrictions (which are subject to changes from time to time without notice). The actual conversion arrangement will depend on the policy, regulatory requirements and / or restrictions prevailing at the relevant time.

Foreign Currency Risk

Foreign Exchange involves Exchange Rate Risk. Fluctuations in the exchange rate of a foreign currency may result in gains or loss of principal in the event that the customer converts the deposits from Hong Kong Dollar or foreign currency to another currency, and/or in the event that the customer converts a foreign currency time deposit to another currency (including Hong Kong Dollar) upon maturity.

Risk disclosure

Foreign currency transactions involve fluctuations in exchange rates. When the transaction amount is debited from your foreign currency account, the account balance is subject to exchange rate risk, which may result in gains or losses. Please ensure there is a sufficient balance of foreign currency in your account; otherwise, we'll convert HKD into the relevant currency to complete the transaction, which may result in a loss for your account.

Investors should not only base on this material alone to make any investment decision, but should read in detail the relevant risk disclosure statements.
